Tuesday, October 12, 2004, 7:00p.m. • Mar Vista Park Recreation Center

Mar Vista Voices – building our community voice
Forum on neighbors having a say in our community and the city

MEET grassroots neighborhood groups... some decades old

LEARN how neighbors work together building their community

HELP create our Mar Vista community voice...add yours to the mix

AGENDA

7:00–7:30 p.m. (playground)
NEIGHBORHOOD GROUPS will be at tables to provide information

Mar Vista Senior Citizens Club, Mar Vista Historical Society, Westdale Homeowners Association, Westside Village Civic Association, North Westdale Homeowners Association, Hilltop Neighbors Association, Mar Vista Neighborhood Association, VenMar Neighborhood Association, Mar Vista Park Community Advisory Board, Gregory Ain Architectural Historic District, Concerned Residents Against Airpot Pollution, LANC Citywide Issues Group, Taco Bell Neighbors Action Group, and MVCC Urban Planning Committee and Commercial Corridors sub-committee, MVCC Education/Arts/Culture Committee and Mar Vista Community Arts Guild, MVCC Safety and Security Committee, MVCC Transportation/Infrastruture Committee, etc.

7:30– 9:00 p.m. (auditorium)
GUEST SPEAKERS from L.A. City and UCLA

Greg Nelson, Director of the Department of Neighborhood Empowerment (DONE), one of the founding advocates for L.A. neighborhood councils
Neal Richman, of the UCLA Department of Urban Planning and Public Policy

FORUM – an open discussion about building our community voice with a panel of Mar Vista neighborhood activists

            Bea Steelman, co-founder of the 15-year-old Mar Vista Senior Citizens Club
            Roz Bessen of the 50+ year-old Westdale Homeowners Association
            Sara Roos, community organizer of a five-year-old Taco Bell Neighbors Action Group
            Steve Wallace of the one-year-old MVCC Commercial Corridors sub-committee Amanda Seward of the one-year-old Gregory Ain Architectural Historic District.