President's message: by Martin Rubin

Dear Neighbors,

The holiday season is upon us and traffic conditions are even more difficult, so please be extra careful when driving, walking, biking or scooting around.

To all new neighbors: please drop me an email to introduce yourselves (or call).

To all: Have you sent me your contact information to add to my NWN list-serve, so you can receive timely notices between our monthly newsletters?

No applications were received last month for the MVCC vacant Zone 2 Director position. It had to be extended for another month. I submitted my name for consideration. Community involvement is important and it can be very rewarding on several levels.

At the December 11 MVCC Board Of Directors meeting, City Controller Ron Galperin will be available to answer questions about transparency, accountability, and a myriad of other topics regarding stewardship of city money. It's a great opportunity to get answers to questions straight from the Controller himself. More information at: www.marvista.org.

I recently met with Alek Bartosouf, the mobility deputy for L. A. Councilmember Bonin. Alek requested that we meet to discuss several items pertaining to traffic in our neighborhood, some of which I had requested several months back. Although he was very nice, he could only offer excuses as to why the City of Los Angeles could not mitigate our cut-through traffic. I am certain you agree with me, that excuses can't solve our traffic problems.

I also recently met with, at his request, Andrew Kratzer, Political and Community Relations Director for Afriat Consulting Group, Inc.; a firm hired by the developers of the planned "Barringway Place", located at 11701 Gateway, northwest corner of Barrington and Pearl. He accepted my invitation to attend our January 30, 2019 NWN meeting and to give a presentation regarding this development project. Also attending our January 30 meeting will be LAPD-SLO Adrian Acosta. Look for more details in our January NWN Newsletter.

Happy Holidays and Happy New Year
